

REGIONAL WORKSHOP ORGANIZED BY THE MORMUGAO BASE OF FISHERY SURVEY OF INDIA, GOA ON 02.12.2016

One day regional workshop on "Marine fishery resources of Goa- Sustainable utilization, Development and Management" was organized on 02.12.2016 at Municipal Hall, Canacona, Goa to disseminate the information on the resources potential and availability, various eco-friendly fishing methods to exploit the oceanic as well as the perch resources, optimum utilization of fishery resources etc. for the benefit of local fishermen.

The workshop was inaugurated by the Chief Guest Dr. (Smt.), Shamila Monteiro, Director of Fisheries, Govt. of Goa and presidential speech was delivered by Shri S. K. Jaiswal, Mechanical Marine Engineer, Mormugao Base of FSI.

Shri Raju S. Nagpure, Sr. Scientific Assistant welcomed all the dignitaries and the participants. While delivering the Key note address Shri S. K. Jaiswal, Mechanical Marine Engineer, FSI Mormugao briefed the role of FSI and the organizational set up along the coast of India. He emphasized on the objective of the workshop.

Several scientific papers were presented during the workshop by the Base Scientists and Engineers. Shri Chandrakant Velip, Dy. Director of Fisheries, Govt. of Goa delivered the lecture on Schemes of Department of Fisheries, Goa during the workshop.

During the workshop, the activities of FSI and achievements were explained to the participants. Altogether 172 nos. fisherfolks from Canacona area and officials from the dept. of fisheries, Govt. of Goa were participated and benefited from workshop.

Shri S. G. Patwari, Jr. Fisheries Scientist, Mormugao Base of FSI delivered a Vote of Thanks.

