

ONE DAY REGIONAL WORKSHOP ON “MARINE FISHERY RESOURCES OF MAHARASHTRA: SUSTAINABLE UTILIZATION, DEVELOPMENT AND MANAGEMENT” ORGANISED BY MORMUGAO BASE OF FISHERY SURVEY OF INDIA

Mormugao Base of Fishery Survey of India and Mumbai Base of Fishery Survey of India jointly organised a one-day regional workshop on “Marine fishery resources of Maharashtra: Sustainable utilization, Development and Management” in association with State Fisheries Department, Govt. of Maharashtra at Sai Mangal Karyalay, Vengurla on 27.06.2018.

Shri Vishnudas S. Kubal, Member Zilha Parishad, Sindhudurg was the Chief Guest for the function and inaugurated the workshop.

Shri Rajendra Kubal, Chairmen, Vengurla, Macchimar Co-operative Society, Vengurla, Shri Anant Keluskar, Chairmen, Adhunik Rapan Sungh, Vengurla, Shri Ganpat Keluskar, Dy. Sarpanch, Ubhadanda, Grampanchayat, Vengurla, Shri B. Bala Nayak, Officer-in-Charge, Mumbai Base of Fishery Survey of India and Shri Satish Khade, Fisheries Development Officer, Govt. of Maharashtra, Malvan were Guest of Honors during the workshop.

Shri Ashok S. Kadam, Fisheries Scientist, Mumbai Base of FSI, Mumbai welcomed the dignitaries and fishermen from various Fisheries Co-operative Societies from Malvan region.

The Chief Guest addressed the local fishermen regarding exploration and exploitation of marine fishery resources on sustainable manner for conservation and Management of Fishery resources. He also expressed the attention for declining trends in fish catches in Malvan region. Shri S. K. Jaiswal, Mechanical Marine Engineer, FSI, Mormugao delivered the key note address and explained mandate of FSI, History and objectives for organizing workshop.

Vote of thanks was given by Dr. H. D. Pradeep, Fisheries Scientist. Mormugao Base of FSI, Goa.

A total of 135 fishermen from various Fishermen Co-operative societies, Marketing Societies, officials from Dept. of Fisheries, Malvan and Press reporters participated in the workshop.

The proceeding of the workshop was published in the Tarun Bharat Newspaper on 02.07.2018.

