

REGIONAL WORKSHOP ON “OCEANIC FISHERY RESOURCES OF LAKSHADWEEP SEA – PROSPECTS & PROBLEMS” ORGANIZED ON 27.02.2015 AT THE AUDITORIUM, AMINI DWEEP, LAKSHADWEEP.

Cochin base of Fishery Survey of India had conducted one day Regional workshop on “Oceanic Fishery Resources of Lakshadweep Sea – Prospects & Problems” organized on 27.02.2015 at the auditorium, Amini dweep, Lakshadweep. Shri. D.K. Gulati, Zonal Director welcomed the delegates and participants. He delivered the Key Note Address. The workshop was inaugurated by Shri T. Kasim, Sub Divisional Officer.

Around 135 participants, including 126 fishermen and fisherwomen, representatives of fishermen co-operative societies and various religious leaders were attended the workshop. The workshop was completely held in the regional language “Malayalam” for the local fisher folk.

